Notes:

- (1) Layering, of different ingredients is achieved by pouring the ingredients over the back of a spoon, into a glass.
- (2) I always use proportions as guidelines only, and I think they should NOT be strictly adhered to, but experiment. We are doing it for the taste aren't we? For there are sure cheaper ways to get drunk!
- (3) This list was compiled by Peter Flodin (s3021421@ipc04.mpce.mq.edu.au), and is the result from editing a number of different lists and articles that have appeared on rec.food.drink . Obviously I haven't tried all these, any comments, additions and corrections appreciated.

.. "THE ULTIMATE DRINK LIST"
.-from several people in alt.party and rec.food.drink.
.-put together by chattha@mailserver.sfu.ca.
.-thanks to everybody who posted.

When a recipe says one part, it means just that any equal part.

.1 shot = 1.5 ounces = 44ml

A "shotglass" is usually 1.5 ounces, but sometimes 2 ounces with a measuring line at 1.5 ounces. You can also buy (in US) "short shot" glasses or "pony shots" which are 1 ounce. Pony shots are usually used with martinis, manhattans, and rob roys.

."Fifth" = 4/5 Qt. = 1/5 Gal. = 25.6 oz .now => 750 ml = 25.5 oz

."Pint" .= 1/2 Quart .= 16 oz..now => 500 ml = 17.0 oz

"Half-Pint" = 1/2 pint .= 8 oz..now => 200 ml = 6.8 oz.

."Half-Gallon" .= 64 oz..now => 1750 ml = 59.7 oz

."Quart" .= 32 oz..now => 1000 ml = 34.1 oz

Well, let's see...8 oz = 1 cup = 250 mL...hmm, I think an ounce may be 0.03125 L (or 31.25 mL). 1 shot is one ounce, and 1 part just means to get the ratio of the ingredients right (it doesn't matter what you use). To get % alcohol by volume, divide the proof by two.

Here's one which is quite popular at the moment here in Karlsruhe,Germany. It's calles 'Orgasmus' (yes, 'orgasm') and mixed as follows:

1 part Tequila

1 part Baileys

into a little glass. Looks like, um..., but tastes fine.

Here are a few recipies for like drinks. They all taste just... just... ("orgasmic", shouts the crowd) err yeah, orgasmic. And they're easy to make and bloody expensive. They're all made in a small liqueur glass, cos any more makes your nose fall off.

Apache

1 part Kaluha

1 part Baileys

1 part Midori melon

Pour Kaluha into bottom of glass. Over the back of a spoon, add the Baileys. Same for the Midori on top. Serve more than one to each person. Upon command, everyone drinks contents of the glasses in one shot. Sit back and watch.

B-52

1 part Kaluha
1 part Baileys
1 part Cointreau

Same procedure as above.

Blowjob

-----

1 part Kaluha
1 part Baileys
Whipped cream

Same procedure as above, but place whipped cream on top. You may have to suck or lick the cream off the top to get to the liqueur (hence the name?)

Orgasm

-----

1 part Baileys
1 part Cointreau

Mix in small glass (tumbler?), not necessarily over ice (I think it wastes the taste). Drink slowly. Repeat. Pass out.

Screaming Orgasm

-----

1 part Baileys
1 part Cointreau
1 part Galliano Liqueur (the yellow one)

As above.

etc.... Experimentation with liqueurs, if you can afford it, is a very pleasant way to have your legs fall off of an evening.

Blowjob: 1 part Irish Cream, 1 part Grand Manier, 1 part Creme de Banana

Girl is supposed to drink it with hands tied behind her back.
Picks up the glass with her mouth all the way around it and suck it down.

Everybody guesses whether she spits or swallows.

EverClear Jello (190 proof grain alc)
orange flavored jello
knox unflavored jello

take the 4 cup of water jello box and empty it into a bowl, mix in 3 cups of hot water and desolve jello, add two packets of knox unflavored jello, then add one cup of everclear. Pour into mold or for best results pour into paper pill cups (small ones you get in the hospital) and let set.

hours later (2+) eat up, yum!

Vodka can be substituted for everclear with good results, just use two cups of vodka and two cups of water.

Romulan Ale

1 jgr Bacardi 151
1 jgr Blue Curaco

A "guaranteed" success at any 21 party
and for later on that night

Vulcan Mind Probe
Wild Turkey, Ouzo, and 151

Bill: I am inferring from your emotional pleas for a drink recipe list that you might enjoy mixing up this recipe which can be served as a jumbo drink or strained as shooters.

AGENT ORANGE: 1 ounce each of Vodka, Rum, Gin, Southern Comfort, Yukon Jack, Apple Schnapps, and Melon Liqueor. 2 ounces of Grenadine. 6 ounces of Orange Juice. Pour into 32 oz container filled to top with ice. Shake well and serve. Make sure you have a designated driver if you drink the whole concoction by yourself.

Here is a good one to try. Get some fruit (apples, watermelon, oranges, bannanas, etc) and a bottle (or two, if you're really bold) of Everclear (can you guys get it up there?). If not, use 100 proof vodka or 151 rum. Slice up the fruit and let it soak by itself overnight in the alcohol. Then add a 3-4 (maybe 5) cans of Haiwaian Punch and a bottle or two of something fizzy (ginger ale, seven up, etc.). Enjoy and watch out for the apples, they hold the most alcohol.

Mix equal parts of ginger ale, grape juice, vodka, and grain alcohol. It's called "Purple Jesus."

Be prepared to have a lot of people spend the night!

Ok, here are a few shots for your friend. I don't really think this person will consider you their friend the next morning. :-)

This one isn't a shot, but a "welcome" of age.

Rusty Nail.

1 1/2 oz. Scotch .1 lemon twist

1/2 oz. Drambuie

Pour the Scotch and Drambuie into an average sized glass almost filled with ice cubes. Stir well, then garnish w/ the lemon twist. Have birthday person drink this through a mixing straw as fast as they can. (NOTE) This is an "acquired" taste drink. Tastes like you are chewing on a rusty nail. ;-)

Ok, now for the shots... even though some aren't.

Flying Dutchman

2 oz. Gin. 1/2 oz. Cointreau or Triple Sec

Combine the Gin and other in a small glass almost filled w/ ice cubes. Stir well, let it chill, strain into another glass, then serve.

(NOTE) Can also be served warm. If too cheap to buy ice, etc.

Hat Trick

1/2 oz. dark rum. 1/2 oz. sweet vermouth

1/2 oz. light rum

Combine everything in a shaker half-filled w/ ice cubes. Shake well then strain into another glass.

Godfather

1 1/2 oz. Scotch. 1/2 oz. amaretto

Pour both ingredients into a glass half-filled w/ ice cubes, shake well, then strain into another glass.

Tequila Slammer

1 1/2 oz. tequila. 1/2 oz. 7-up

Pour both into shot glass, cover w/ a napkin. While holding napkin tightly on glass, slam shot glass onto table, remove napkin, slam contents.

Fire and Ice

1 1/2 oz. pepper vodka. 1 tsp. dry vermouth

In a mixing glass half-filled w/ ice cubes, combine both of the ingredients. Stir well, then strain into another glass.

Kamikaze

2 oz. vodka. 1 tsp. lime juice

In a mixing glass half-filled w/ ice cubes, combine both ingredients. Stir well, then strain into another glass.

Kamikaze #2

1 1/2 oz. vodka..2 tsp. lime juice

1/2 oz. Cointreau or triple sec

Same procedure as above.

Russian Kamikaze

2 oz. vodka..1 tsp. Chambord

Same procedure as above. (yes my fingers are getting tired) ;-)

Biolermaker

1 oz. blended whiskey.12 oz. beer

Pour the whiskey into a shot glass. Pour the beer into a mug. (If available) I have two, but were "procured" from a local eating establishment. Yes I'm a poor, starving, deprived, (other pitiful excuse inserted here) college student. Otherwise, drink right out of the can, you're among friends. Drink the whiskey in one go. Sip the beer.

Spy Catcher

1 oz. Canadian whisky.1/2 oz. Sambuca

Pour both into a shot glass, drink it straight back.

T.N.T.

1 1/2 oz. blended whisky.1 oz. anisette

Same procedure as above.

No, seriously. An Orgasm can be made like so....

.3/4 oz. Irish cream liqueur

.3/4 oz. Grand Marnier

.3/4 oz. Kahlua

.1 oz. vodka

Shake with ice cubes, and empty (cubes and all) into a rocks glass.

In a suitably sized glass (depending upon effect required, but generally a small, tall one) place a measure of Baileys (about half the glass). On top of this (over the back of a spoon), float the same measure of Cointreau.

Imbibe rapidly.

Here is a drink that I know everyone will enjoy.

Jamacia me crazy

In a tall glass pour

1/2 ounce amber rum

1/2 ounce tia maria

fill glass with ice

add pineapple juice

stir and enjoy.

An added touch is to put pineapple cubes in the drink.

I was sittin here readin the net when I thought of some drinks I made while I was in college. These are drinks made with the bare essentials - nothing expensive, extravagant, and not found in the corner store.

.A few of my favorites were (read: are)

.Apple Pie -.one part vodka

a little less than one part apple juice

...cinnomon powder

...a small glass (~6oz, the little ones jelly comes in

..... are good).

..Pour vodka into the glass

..add apple juice

..a dash o cinnomon on top

..DO NOT MIX

. Drink quickly

.When mixed in the right perportion the drink will taste like Grandma's

.own.

.Apple Jack - .substitute Jack Daniel's

...mix same

..Tastes like the cereal of same name.

.Shoot the Root -beer (the cheaper the better ;*)

...rootbeer shnapps

...12oz cup

...shot glass

..with a shot glass' height of beer in the cup

..drop shot glass full of shnapps in cup o beer

. Pound

.Adjust mix to taste like root beer. Mmm Mmm good %*)

Mix in a punch bowl:

2 cups sugar

375 ml (1/2 bottle) inexpensive Brandy (say, Christian Brothers)

5 bottles decent cheap champagne (say, Frexinet)

then stir in

6 oranges, 6 lemons and 6 limes, sliced thin into rounds
1 pineapple, cut into chunks (canned will do, but fresh is better)
1/2 bag of ice in small cubes or crushed (more or less to fit the bowl)

To complete, garnish with strawberries and pour a final bottle of champagne theatrically over the top.

Total cost is around $50 (maybe as low as $25 if you use really cheap champagne) for about 50 drinks.

Here's my favorite punch that can be served any time:

NULL & VOID PUNCH

750ml VODKA
500ml WILDBERRY SCHNAPPS
500ml PEACH SCHNAPPS
375ml SOUTHERN COMFORT
2 liters of Hawaiian Punch

Mix with ice in a Tupperware dish pan. Serve in 16 oz glasses (with caution). Tastes great, but can lead to wastedness if consumed too quickly, hence the name NULL & VOID punch. Brought to you by TIKI.

.(Did you get the number of that)

..TRUCK PUNCH

..-----

..1 Liter bourbon whiskey
..1 Fifth Apple Snapps
..1/2 Fifth Cinnamon Snapps
..2 Liters Squirt

Give yourself a break, use ice. :-)

I made this for a party a few weeks ago, out of stuff that I had on hand and that sounded like it might taste good. No measurements -- just to taste (and to color). It was yummy.

Vile Green Stuff

Soda water (seltzer, fizzy, whatever you call it)

Midori (what makes it green)

Peach Schnapps

--

1/5 Blue Hawaii (sp) Maui Schnapps

1 gallon Orange Juice

1/2 oz. Orange juice      |      1/2 oz. Sloe Gin

1/2 oz. sloe gin      |      1/2 oz. Triple Sec

This was a local (Portland OR) bartender's favorite recipe for Long Island Iced Teas:

1/2 shot gin      1/2 shot vodka

1/2 shot rum      1/2 shot triple sec

Fill with sweet and sour and add a splash of Coke. Serve in a pint glass.

PUSSER'S PAIN KILLER

1 oz coconut cream
4 oz pineapple juice, chilled
1 oz orange juice
3-4 oz Pusser's rum
5-6 ice cubes
4 oz crushed ice
1 small Union Jack flag

Combine coconut cream, juices, rum, and ice cubes in shaker and shake vigorously. Put crushed ice in a chilled 14-oz tall glass and strain

HUSH PUPPY -

1 shot Jack Daniels
2 shots Coke
combine in beer mug

1/2 shot root beer schnaps
1/2 shot sambuca
combine in shooter glass

lower shooter glass into beer mug containing the J.D. and Coke

Chug

BERRY DEADLY

Try this one:

2 pints Everclear
1 bottle Boone Strawberry Hill Wine
1/2 gallon orange juice
1 gallon Tropical Berry Kool-Aid

This one will knock everybody on their ass!

Something a little More Refined...

Strawberry Bolle

3 bottles chilled Moselle
1 bottle chilled Champagne

1 kg (2 pounds) sliced, hulled strawberries
8 tablespoons sugar

Sprinkle strawbs with sugar, add one bottle Moselle. Chill for several hours. To serve, pour into large bowl with ice, add the rest of the wine. Serve in small wine glasses.

EVERYBODY'S IRISH

2 oz Irish Whiskey..1 oz green Chartreuse
1 oz green Creme de Menthe

.In a mixing glass half-filled with ice cubes, combine all of the ingredients. Stir well. Strain into a cocktail glass.

ALGONQUIN

1 1/2 oz blended whiskey.1/2 oz dry vermouth
1 oz pineapple juice

In a shaker half-filled with ice cubes, combine all of the ingredients. Shake well. Strain into a cocktail glass.

BABY'S BOTTOM

1 1/2 oz blended whiskey.1/2 oz white creme de cacao
1/2 oz white creme de menthe

In a mixing glass half-filled with ice cubes, combine all of the ingredients. Stir well. Strain into a cocktail glass.

BAY HORSE

1 1/2 oz blended whiskey.1 oz heavy cream
1/2 oz Pernod...1/4 teaspoon grated nutmeg
1/2 oz dark creme de cacao

In a shaker half-filled with ice cubes, combine the whiskey, Pernod, creme de cacao, and cream. Shake well. Strain into an old-fashioned glass almost filled with ice cubes. Garnish with the nutmeg.

BOILERMAKER

1 oz blended whiskey.12 oz beer

Pour the whiskey into a shot glass. Pour the beer into a beer mug. Drink the whiskey in one go. Sip the beer. Drink a Boilermaker only if you are sober before you start and tough enough to drink whiskey in one go.

.A variation is that you drop the filled shot glass directly into the filled beer mug and drink the entire contents in one go.

MANHATTAN

2 oz blended whiskey..3 dashes Angostura bitters

3/4 oz sweet vermouth..1 cherry

In a mixing glass half-filled with ice cubes (doesn't this sound familiar?), combine the whiskey, vermouth, and the bitters. Stir well. Strain into a cocktail glass. Garnish with the cherry.

I'm sure a few people are gonna wonder what the heck a bitter is. Basically all they are is an herb. Its just something to add a little different taste.
